Talks with active terrorist groups

†3412. DR.D.MASTHAN:
SHRI RAJ MOHINDER SINGH:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) wheter Government have offered to hold talks with active terrorist groups in the country for resolving the problem of terrorism;

(b) if so, the names of the terrorist groups which were offered to hold talks with Government;

(c) when the offer was made and what were the reasons for selecting this very time for making the offer; and

(d) other matters included in the offer?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) to (d) During his visit to Jammu and Kashmir on 26-27 July, 1997, the then Prime Minister had made an appeal to the misguided youth of the State, who have joined the militant ranks, to give up their guns, and said that the Government was prepared to have unconditional talks with them, to enable them to rejoin the mainstream. The Government is committed to the said offer of talks, within the constitutional frame work.

The Prime Minister of India had spelt out the parameters for initiating a peace dialogue with militant outfilts in the North East on 15 April, 1998 at Guwahati declaring:

"To all those who have strayed from the paths of togetherness, whether in Assam or other States of the North East, I extend an invitation; come foward; let us discuss, my Government is committed to holding talks, to a restoration of peace; let us do so within the four corners of our Constitution".

Cease fire and peace talks with the NSCN(IM) are underway since 1 August, 1997. Suspension of operations with the Bodo Liberation Tiger (BLT) was also announced earlier this year. NSCN(K) have also issued a Press Release Offering a formal "cease fire' with the Government of India and political talks. tOriginal notice of the question was received in Hindi.

The offer for talks have been made by the Government in view of its commitment of resolve all issues through negotiations. The Government are firmly of the view that violence has no place in a democratic polity and the people by and large want peace and an end to violence.
